The advantages of this contract need searcely be urged upon wealthy men, or merchants, for they rarely neglect it, and if they do, fires leaves them other resources. It is especially valuable to laboring men, mechanics and others of mode rate means-who, perhaps, have little else than a home and its contents in the world. These should never neglect to insure; a fire that may visit them at any hour would leave them homeless, and with no capital but their labor to begin again the struggle of life, and years of toll and watching must pass before they can regain what they have lost, if indeed it is ever one. To such, insurance is a duty. COMPLETITION IS THE LIPE OF BUSINESI.

A 3 a certain dealer of the town of Jackson, has advertised, that he sells goods at Postsmouth prices, and then goes on to entinerate what those prices are I wish to isform the public, that I buy my goods in Pertsmouth, and slo not buy then at action either. Notifier do I pro-tend to sell them at cost, or kie, per is profit ei-ther. But will sell them as low as those who do $5,238 St 9 For instance, I will sell Molasses at $1 cis., per gailon, by the barrel, thereby saving 5 cts pegallon, on his prices to the consumer: Prime it is coffee at 10% cts, by the sack; Whichy at 20% cts by the barrel, (and it shall not be more than half water at that.) I would say to those who wish to purchase Grocerics, D.y. Goods, Hardware, Queensware, Nalls and Iron, which I will sell in quantities to suit purchasers, and at prices to suit the times. And relating to the subject of buying groceries at action, I heard a certain person who resides in Jackson, and sells goods there, that he bought his groceries at auction, at Cincinnati, and that individual must 495 21 9 himself judge whether he is a gentleman or not, the that subject I have nothing to say, let himself.
